Certificate in Public Health

Offered by the College of Public Health, the Certificate in Public Health may be completed entirely ONLINE. The program is designed to strengthen knowledge and skills in basic public health competencies. Students have up to five years to successfully complete the certificate program.

To earn the ONLINE Certificate in Public Health, students must successfully complete 12 semester hours (s.h.) and maintain a minimum 2.75 GPA on a 4.0 scale in all course work and that the course work is less than 5 years old upon successful completion.

Required:
MPH:4101 Introduction to Public Health OR MPH:2099 Fundamentals of Public Health
EPID:3099 Evidence-Based Public Health Methods (online Summer only)

Select two elective courses:
CBH:4105 Intro to Health Promotion & Disease Prevention (online Fall only)
HMP:4000 Intro to the US Healthcare System (online Summer only)
OEH:4240 Global Environmental Health (online Spring only)

HOW TO DECLARE THE CERTIFICATE

To earn the certificate, a formal Public Health Certificate Application is required, along with a statement of purpose, two reference letters, and a resume.